PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Welcome to San Diego, home to Balboa Park, a cultural oasis that includes 17 museums, gardens, and the world-famous San Diego Zoo, as well as beautiful beaches, shopping, world class dining, and the site of the National Association of Chapter 13 Trustees' (NACTT) 55th Annual Seminar at the Marriott Marquis at the San Diego Marina, July 8-11, 2020. Make your plans now to attend this premier consumer bankruptcy educational seminar.

This year's program is filled with a range of relevant and timely topics of interest to consumer practitioners. Bill Rochelle will be hosting a roundtable discussion with bankruptcy judges on some of the hottest decisions from the courts. In addition, other talented speakers will address issues related to the HAVEN Act, separate classification of claims, qualities of a good attorney, and economic trends and the impact on consumer bankruptcy. The history of Chapter 13 will be explored, also. The always-popular case law update is returning again this year, featuring the Honorable Keith M. Lundin, the Honorable Kevin R. Anderson, and Trustee Henry E. Hildebrand III. The meeting will provide networking opportunities for sharing suggestions for improvements to consumer laws and procedures.

The San Diego seminar provides excellent educational sessions and allows you to take advantage of some amazing sightseeing opportunities. Be sure to visit the Cabrillo National Monument, where Europeans first landed in California in 1542, for some fantastic views of the city. Balboa Park is home to the world-famous San Diego Zoo, and a short drive away in Escondido is the San Diego Zoo Safari Park. While at Balboa Park, you can enjoy one of the many museums, including the San Diego Air and Space Museum, the San Diego Automotive Museum, the San Diego Museum of Art, and many others. You can take a walk in the Japanese Friendship Garden or enjoy the Inez Parker Memorial Rose Garden, featuring more than 2,400 rose bushes. If water sports are of interest to you, you might enjoy a visit to Mission Bay Aquatic Park, the largest aquatic park in the United States, offering water activities for all ages including kayaking, paddle boarding, and wave runners. If you prefer an opportunity for hiking through a coastal wilderness of pine forests and sandstone canyons, you can explore Torrey Pines State Park where hiking trails will take you along the coastline to enjoy great views of the Pacific Ocean. Once your day of sightseeing is done, you can enjoy a stunning sunset at the Sunset Cliffs Natural Park. No doubt a day of sightseeing is likely to leave you hungry, and San Diego has no shortage of great restaurants. You can enjoy a wonderful meal in San Diego's Little Italy along Kettner Boulevard, home to many great chefs, earning the area the title of "Top Chef Alley." If you prefer a more urban scene, you could enjoy an evening in the historic Gaslamp Quarter where you will find galleries, chic boutiques, trendy nightclubs, rooftop bars, gastropubs, and fine dining restaurants lining the streets.

The NACTT strives to be a nationwide leader in consumer bankruptcy law education and the 2020 annual seminar presents many opportunities to improve your knowledge and expertise. The NACTT Academy and program planners have compiled an excellent panel of speakers from across the country. See you in San Diego!
