Bradley Arant Boulton Cummings Partners Mabry Rogers and Henry Walker Named BTI Client Service All-Stars

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., NASHVILLE, Tenn. (February 24, 2011) – Bradley Arant Boulton Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that Birmingham partner E. Mabry Rogers and Nashville partner Henry M. Walker have been named BTI Client Service All-Stars for 2011.

The BTI Client Service All-Stars are an elite group of attorneys nominated solely and exclusively by clients through BTI's independent surveys as delivering the absolute best in client service. In its tenth year, The BTI Client Service All-Stars 2011 lists 318 individual attorneys from 201 unique firms. To compile its list, BTI conducted more than 300 individual interviews with corporate counsel at Fortune 1000 companies and large organizations.

“This is a significant honor for Mabry and Henry and we congratulate them on being named to such a prestigious and elite list,” said Firm Chairman Beau Grenier. “This confirms what we already knew: that Mabry and Henry provide superior service to their clients and are valued for their seasoned counsel and guidance.”

Rogers focuses his practice on complex construction and procurement litigation. He has been with Bradley Arant Boulton Cummings since 1975 and worked on some of the most important matters in Alabama, the Southeast and around the country over the past several decades. Rogers is a member of the American College of Construction Lawyers and has also been named a leading lawyer by Best Lawyers and Chambers USA. He holds a B.A. (cum laude) from Yale University and a J.D. (cum laude) from Harvard Law School.

Walker practices in the areas of utility regulation and utility property taxation, with an emphasis on representing leading telecommunications and natural gas companies. Prior to joining Bradley Arant Boulton Cummings, he was the General Counsel for the Tennessee Public Service Commission for 13 years, and also served in the U.S. Department of Justice as an Assistant District Attorney General in Nashville. Walker has been listed in Best Lawyers for his energy law practice, Mid-South Super Lawyers for his government work and The International Who's Who of Business Lawyers for regulatory communications. He holds a B.A. (magna cum laude) from Yale University and a J.D. from Harvard Law School.
