Bradley Arant Boult Cummings Partner Kevin B. Campbell
Named to Nashville Health Care Council

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (July 11, 2011) – Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that partner Kevin B. Campbell has been named to the 2011-2012 Nashville Health Care Council board of directors. The group works to advance the city’s reputation as a leading hub for the U.S. health care industry.

“This appointment is a significant honor for Kevin, and we congratulate him on this recognition,” said Firm Chairman Beau Grenier. “Kevin is widely known as a go-to attorney for the health care industry across the country, and I’m sure his perspectives and insights will be very valuable to the board.”

Campbell focuses his practice exclusively on the representation of health care providers in transactional, regulatory and operational matters. His clients include providers and companies in a number of sectors of the health care industry, with a particular emphasis on acute care hospitals, including for-profit chains and non-profit systems. Campbell also routinely works with large physician practices and other physician organizations. He holds a J.D. from Vanderbilt University School of Law and a B.A. from the College of William & Mary.

About the Nashville Health Care Council

The Nashville Health Care Council, founded in 1995 as an initiative of the Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce, is an association of health care industry leaders working together to further establish Nashville’s position as the nation’s health care industry capital. The health care industry is Nashville’s largest and fastest growing employer, generating more than $70 billion in revenue and over 400,000 jobs globally.
