Bradley Arant Boulton Cummings Partner B. David Joffe
Listed Among ‘Best ERISA Attorneys’ in Fiduciary News Directory

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (July 28, 2011) – Bradley Arant Boulton Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that B. David Joffe, a partner in the firm’s Nashville office and chairman of the firm’s Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation Group, has been named one of “The Best ERISA Attorneys” by readers of the industry website Fiduciary News.

Joffe is listed in the publication’s ERISA Attorney Directory. First published in May 2011, the directory lists attorneys who are nominated through the Fiduciary News Reader Survey. Fiduciary News is a fiduciary law, tax accounting and investment news and information website.

“This latest recognition further acknowledges David’s tremendous skills and leadership and the respect he has earned from colleagues and clients as a leading employee benefits and ERISA attorney,” said firm Chairman Beau Grenier. “We congratulate David on his continued success and achievements.”

Joffe practices in the areas of employee benefits, executive compensation and employment law. He represents public and private employers ranging in size from small businesses and professional corporations to large service corporations, governmental entities, manufacturing facilities and hospital systems. Among his other professional accolades, Joffe was named to the 2011 edition of Best Lawyers®, a well-respected, peer-reviewed publication.
