

Bradley Arant Boulton Cummings Partner J. Douglas Minor, Jr. Named to Mississippi's Judicial Appointments Advisory Committee

JACKSON, Miss. (Oct. 17, 2012) – Bradley Arant Boulton Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that partner J. Douglas Minor, Jr. has been appointed by Mississippi Gov. Phil Bryant to the Judicial Appointments Advisory Committee. The Committee is responsible for reviewing all applications for judicial appointments in the state. Mr. Minor is among 31 new appointees. Committee members serve two-year terms and can be reappointed.

“This is an important committee in Mississippi and we congratulate Doug on this appointment, which recognizes his leadership role in the state’s legal community,” said Firm Chairman Beau Grenier.

Mr. Minor focuses his practice on commercial and financial litigation and financial services regulatory compliance. His practice currently includes the defense of several large financial services and insurance companies throughout the southeastern United States, as well as involvement in all aspects of mortgage-related and lender liability litigation. Mr. Minor also represents national insurance companies and a large private equity firm against consumer fraud, deceptive sales practice and product liability claims. He earned his J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center and has an A.B. from Harvard University.
