

Bradley Arant Boulton Cummings Nashville Partner Patricia Head Moskal Selected as Litigation Counsel of America Fellow

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (Oct. 16, 2012) – Bradley Arant Boulton Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that Nashville partner Patricia Head Moskal, a trial lawyer with more than 25 years of experience in business and commercial litigation, has been selected as a Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America (LCA). Invitation-only membership in the LCA is limited to 3,500 Fellows, representing less than one-half of one percent of all American lawyers.

The LCA is a trial lawyer honorary society that recognizes excellence among American litigation and trial counsel across all segments of the American bar. Attorneys are invited into Fellowship after being evaluated on effectiveness and accomplishment in litigation and trial work, along with ethical reputation. In addition to recognizing lawyers, the LCA provides an outlet for scholarly authorship of legal articles on trial and litigation practice, as well as additional sources for professional development. The society also promotes superior advocacy and ethical standards in the practice of law, assists in community involvement by its membership, and advances a superior judiciary by taking relevant positions on issues or legislation affecting judicial compensation and/or benefits, as well as those affecting the American litigation processes.

“We congratulate Patricia on this wonderful recognition of her outstanding litigation work and service to the practice of law,” said Firm Chairman Beau Grenier. “Her selection as a Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America truly distinguishes her as a trial law leader.”

Ms. Moskal’s practice has a particular focus in state and local tax litigation, appellate litigation, and government contracts and bid protests. She also has significant experience with class actions, contracts and business disputes, insurance and real estate litigation, and municipal law matters. She has successfully represented clients at every level of the state and federal court systems, including the Tennessee Court of Appeals and Supreme Court and the federal Courts of Appeals. Ms. Moskal earned her J.D., with highest honors, from the University of Tennessee College of Law, and has a B.A. from Indiana University.

Ms. Moskal has been recognized by The Best Lawyers in America for Commercial Litigation, Insurance Law, Litigation & Controversy-Tax, and Tax Law. She has been named by Benchmark Litigation as a “Litigation Star” in Tennessee and among the “Top 250 Women in Litigation,” and has been honored by Benchmark Appellate as a Tennessee “Appellate Star.” Ms. Moskal also is AV-Rated by Martindale-Hubbell.

About Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP

Tracing its roots to 1871, Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP has more than 430 attorneys in seven offices and is one of the largest law firms in the Southeast. The firm maintains offices in Birmingham, Huntsville, and Montgomery, Alabama; Jackson, Mississippi; Charlotte, North Carolina; Nashville, Tennessee; and Washington, D.C.

The firm’s lawyers serve clients locally, regionally, nationally, and internationally, and provide services across a wide range of industries, including accounting, automotive, banking and finance, biotechnology, life sciences, construction, economic development, education, emerging business, energy, entertainment, equipment leasing, forest products, government contracts, health care, hospitality, insurance, life sciences, manufacturing, materials and aggregate production, media and communications, mining, municipal and public finance, oil and gas, pharmaceuticals and medical devices, public utilities, real estate, retail, steel, technology, telecommunications, textiles, transportation, and venture capital.