Bradley Arant Boulton Cummings Partner Joseph B. Mays Elected Birmingham Metro YMCA Board Chair

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (Jan. 30, 2013) – Bradley Arant Boulton Cummings LLP partner Joseph B. Mays, Jr. has been elected to a two-year term as Chair of the Board of the Birmingham Metro YMCA. The organization has 14 branches, including two residential camps, and approximately 21,000 members.

“This is a well-deserved appointment for Joe, and speaks to his reputation in Birmingham and the trust our community has in him,” said Firm Chairman Beau Grenier. “We know he will serve the Metro YMCA well.”

Mays focuses his practice on business litigation, particularly antitrust, securities and shareholder matters; government procurement fraud cases; professional liability lawsuits; and white-collar criminal defense. He holds a J.D. from the University of Alabama School of Law, an M.A. from Cornell University, and a B.A. from Tulane University.
