2015 FOUNDATION ANNUAL REPORT

Bradley

Bradley has a long history of supporting organizations engaged in charitable, educational and civic activities. This commitment is expressly included in the firm's core values statement. In 2015, Bradley contributed a total of $984,565 to charitable organizations. In addition to Bradley's financial support, our attorneys and staff contributed approximately 11,500 hours of their time for the benefit of organizations in their communities. Bradley's support of charitable organizations and the extensive volunteer efforts by our attorneys and staff have benefitted numerous community organizations in the areas of education, healthcare, medical research, poverty relief, homelessness, the arts and many other important causes.

Established in 2010, the Bradley Arant Boult Cummings Charitable Foundation coordinates the firm's charitable giving and facilitates a greater degree of interaction among the firm, its attorneys and staff, our clients, and the charitable and civic organizations we support. This report provides a summary of Bradley's financial support to charitable organizations and the time contributed by our attorneys and staff for charitable purposes during 2015. Included in this report are several examples of Bradley's direct involvement with charitable organizations in our communities.

Community Impact

American Diabetes Association Step Out: Walk to Stop Diabetes

Bradley was proud to support the American Diabetes Association's (ADA) Step Out: Walk to Stop Diabetes on November 1 in Birmingham, Alabama. Bradley attorneys Chris Christie, Community Leadership Board President for the ADA's Alabama Chapter, and Michael Walker, ADA Junior Board Chair and Birmingham's 2015 Step Out Walk Chairman, spearheaded the firm's fundraising efforts.

"We were excited at the strong participation of all the firm personnel in fundraising efforts and at the actual event as a member of Bradley's Step Out walking team," said Mabry Rogers, adjunct cheerleader for the Corporate Participation Chair of ADA's Step Out Walk for Birmingham.

American Heart Association Heart Walk

Bradley attorneys and staff in both Birmingham and Huntsville participated in the American Heart Association's Heart Walk. The Heart Walk is the AHA's premier event, bringing communities together to raise funds and celebrate progress in the fight against heart disease and stroke. Participants gathered in support of the AHA's mission to promote physical activity and heart-healthy living, free of cardiovascular disease and stroke. In total, almost $12,000 was raised for cardiovascular research and educational programs in the Birmingham and Huntsville communities.
